Volume XIX

Mayfair High School

Lakewood, California

below: An auto shop student sabotages Mr. Davis' Car by packing 100 pounds of dry ice in and around the engine.

right: What is Karen Freudenberg so interested in?

bottom: Here's the Varsity Volleyball team in one of the most important practice sessions.

opposite left Kirk Kling hides his devilish smirk as the photographer catches him off guard.

ENERGY . . .

It's EVERYWHERE!

You can see it, feel it, hear it, and even taste it wherever you go.

Its omnipresence is often taken for granted. Energy can be found in the sun's heat on a warm day, in the roar of the engine of a 747,

in the sleekness of a Porsche, in a head-on collision between two football players, and in the cheers of the crowd at a rock concert.

Energy is in the food we eat, the music we listen to and in the TV programs we watch.

Stephanie,

Thanks for being such a good friend
this year! and next year I hope we're friends too! You're such a nice pineapple (just kidding) I'm glad we had Soc. Stud. together and I hope your knee feels better and heals real quick! Love ~~Kathy~~ Lee!!!

Energy can be as harmless as laughter, as destructive as a holocaust, or as life saving as the electricity used in a pacemaker to keep a person alive.

Forms of energy can range from minute nuclear particles used for disease detecting X-rays to complete nuclear destruction; from colorful Independence Day fireworks to 5 megaton TNT; and from waterfalls used to generate electricity to huge, village-destroying, flash floods.

top: Along with school spirit, a practical form of energy was present at this year's Homecoming assembly. Helium-filled balloons filled the gym.

opposite right: Assistant Drum Major John Ritch struts along side the Band in the Homecoming Parade.

In spite of its many dangers, energy is essential to the well being of all. And in this day and age of energy conservation, it will become our duty to make sure that energy does not run out...because if energy ceases, life ceases.

opposite top: Some of the Monsoons got "high" at our outdoor assembly /concerts.

opposite left: Who's pulling who in this human tug-o-war? Looks as if Lenny Lopez doesn't have as much to lose as the female half in this contest.

opposite right: The joy of victory was all but scarce during the 1978-79 Monsoon football season (The agony of defeat can be seen if you look in the opposing team's yearbook).

With all seriousness, the 1979 Tradewinds is fondly dedicated to Mr. Norman Silly

(I mean, Salee!)

The 1979 Tradewinds is fondly dedicated to Mr. Norm Salee, noted by his students for teaching in a cheerful, humorous manner. It is a person of dynamic personality who can make the addition of knowledge a pleasure for all.

Mr. Salee was born in Los Angeles in 1936. He began his teaching career at Mayfair High School in 1966 after having completed four years of teaching for the Santa Monica Unified School District. Majoring in Physical Education at UCLA with a dual minor in Health/Life/Science, Mr. Salee has used his education in a variety of courses at MHS. Health, Science and athletic coaching are just a sampling of his past teaching credits. More recently, however, Mr. Salee has been involved in the ever-expanding Drivers Education program.

Mr. Salee maintains an active home life with his charming wife, Evie and his two children, Amy and Scott, claiming one additional family member, "Houdini," the pet gopher snake which escapes.

For your outstanding contributions to the past and present students of Mayfair High School, we, the students of MHS, thank you, Mr. Salee.

Windjammer makes headlines

... more energy is expended in nonsense and imaginative excuses than in investigative reporting and in-depth studies of current issues. Whoever said production of a paper can't be fun? Seriously, a few interested, capable reporters and editors produce a regular tabloid-size newspaper for the education and interest of the student body. Want to see your name in print? Just do something newsworthy.

Epidemic strikes one-fourth of MHS population

A serious disease has again struck MHS campus. This disease has stricken the MHS campus for two decades, ever since the construction of Mayfair High in 1959. Every year it attacks a different group of MHS students, but surprisingly, always in the same percentage 25%.

Its symptoms are obvious to all but the sick. Its after effects can be disastrous. This disease has appropriately been named . . . senioritis.

Some students are more susceptible to senioritis than others; some get it as early as the last day of school in their junior year, and some are so immune to it that they never catch it.

Symptoms include ditching, daydreaming or sleeping in class, skipping assignments, and nervous twitching. Now this may apply to many Mayfair students, but in order for it to be officially be senioritis, the stricken person must be in the twelfth grade.

Only one cure for senioritis is known to mankind. It is a sacred piece of paper known medically as a diploma.

far left: As Linda Boss illustrates, there was, often times, a longer line to use the mirror than to get senior pictures taken. Some people combed their hair for fifteen minutes before they agreed to let their mugs be photographed.

opposite left: Something is wrong with this picture. Can you guess what it is? Right! . . . the broad end of Mike's tie is shorter than the narrow end. Straighten up, Mr. Hoffman!

From beautiful to bizarre, from tasteful to tacky . . . all of these were present at this year's senior portrait sessions.

At first glance any unknowing spectator would have noticed our girls wearing beautiful dresses or cowlneck sweaters with fastidiously styled hair-dos, while the guys wore ties and tailor made jackets with their hair combed to perfection. Any parent would have been very proud to see their son or daughter attend such a school . . . but, unfortunately, these appearances were deceiving.

Second glimpses at these so called well-dressed, young adults uncovered imperfections, especially from the waist down. Tuxedo jackets with cut-offs, suits and sneakers, bow ties and jeans, and dresses with thongs were just a few examples of the seniors' well-developed tastes in clothing.

True, there were people who did look nice from head to toe, but they were not in the majority.

Maybe if this trend catches on, then accessories can probably come to include hats with a built in arrow going through, rubber chicken purses, and designer cat handcuffs by Steve Martin.

Dedicated students win awards

The 1978-79 Principal's Award, given annually to a senior or seniors for outstanding service to the school, has been presented to two outstanding individuals, Virginia Ferreira and Keith Ryono.

Virginia, always energetic, has been active in student government in each of her years at Mayfair, holding the positions of freshman treasurer, sophomore president, and ASB vice-president in her underclass years before serving as ASB president her senior year. She was also involved in all of the girl organizations on campus, track and Pep Club, as well as being selected a member of the homecoming court. Though finding little time to study, Virginia still maintained a 2.85 grade point average.

The modest Ryono has been equally prominent in other areas. Gifted in art, he utilized his talents as editor-in-chief of Tradewinds and Prism, and in doing any and all requested work for other campus publications, such as the "Mutterings" and the Windjammer. A true whiz in class, Keith received only one "B" at Mayfair, his grade point average standing at an astonishing 3.98.

Both seniors have always been where they were needed when they were needed, ready to do whatever job was necessary. It is for this reason that they are being honored.

through service, study

The recipients of the 1978-79 Outstanding Student Award are Marianne Louie and Gary Mockli. Both have compiled a perfect 4.0 grade point average throughout their four years at Mayfair.

In addition to maintaining her astronomical grade point average, Marianne served as president of both NHS and Chess Club, as well as being a member of the Math Club. Like Gary, she is active in various explorer posts.

Marianne plans to continue her schooling at UCLA, where she hopes to earn her degree in medicine.

Gary has spent much of his time with the numerous clubs with which he has been involved. These include Key Club, Chess Club, NHS, where he served as vice-president, and Math Club, in which he was president. He has also been busy off campus, taking calculus and physics courses at Cerritos College and being active in several medical and aerospace explorer posts.

Gary plans to go on to either UCLA or Cal Tech to further his education and hopes to eventually become a bio-physicist.

Diederich, Johnson named

The coaches of Mayfair have chosen cross-country and track star TOM DIEDERICH as the 1978-79 BOY ATHLETE OF THE YEAR.

Tom earned three varsity letters in each of the two sports, and served as team captain of both his final two years. The epitome of distance running, he was named MVP of cross-country two consecutive years. His career highlights were his first place finishes in the El Dorado 2-mile relay and in the Costa Mesa Invitational.

Tom will always be remembered at Mayfair as a hard working, dedicated athlete who never settled for second place.

Athletes of Year 1979

Perhaps one of the greatest honors given to girl athletes at this school is the Athletic Department GIRL ATHLETE OF THE YEAR award. This year, the award has been bestowed upon JACKIE JOHNSON, because of her outstanding athletic abilities and her undying enthusiasm for those sports in which she has participated.

"Those sports" seem to include every sport offered to girls by Mayfair. During Jackie's freshman and sophomore years she was a member of the varsity tennis team and was named 1st Doubles player for her excellence during her freshman year.

For the past three years, Jackie has devoted her energy to softball, basketball and volleyball. She was a member of the varsity volleyball team for the past two years, and a member of the varsity basketball and softball teams for the past three years. Jackie was the captain of the volleyball team in her senior year and was also named Best Defensive Player for that year. Jackie was also named Most Valuable Player for softball in her sophomore year.

Jackie's contributions to sports here at Mayfair will long be remembered and will serve as an example to those students still attending Mayfair.

When I first applied for AFS exchange program, my friends asked my why I would rather waste one year of my college years and go back to high school. I told them that the things I will experience here will be worth much more than what I would receive in university. Indeed, I was right. Here I had the chance to do many things which are not feasible to do if I had stayed at home.

Of course, I have to admit that going back to high school after having taken classes in college is quite dull and boring, especially when I acknowledge the fact that the credits will do me no good at all; I can not use them. But the warmth of people here at Mayfair diminished the dullness. I was always treated with patience and understanding by everyone.

All I can say now is that this exchange program really increased both my mental and, unfortunately, physical capacity. I really learned a lot of American society and culture, including the sinful discovery of the sinfully delicious junk food containing enough preservatives and additives to make one omit any additional embalmment after death in order to keep his body from surface deterioratim.

Nevertheless, I value everything I have learned here, and I wish I could have learned more.

The last thing I want to say is thank you to all of you who enhanced the excitement of my stay and made it more enjoyable.

We Could Not Have Done It Without You!

It seems as though most people in our country have the unique ability to join forces in order to fight or support a common goal. Proposition 13, the world wars, and even the production of the 1979 Tradewinds, are all examples of this.

We on the Annual Staff would like to thank all of our contributors. We hope that we can continue to work together in the future towards the improvement of activities at Mayfair.

NANO-NANO!

Seniors:

As you leave Mayfair and I return to teaching, we have all been enriched by our last four years. Fortunate are those of you who have acquired self-discipline, for you have learned to distinguish between long and short term goals. You have the important trait of questioning rather than accepting. Maintain this trait, and use it well. A Monsoon, remember, is a force which has the strength to go where it wishes but knows when to flow around a mountain. To quote Obi-Wan Kenobi, "May the force be with you always." You are special people.

Tom Parks

The Class

It has been a joy and a privilege to have been a part of your lives this past four years. We have shared some sad and many happy times. Thank you for your senses of humor, your patience and your kindness.

May all the blessings of a richly rewarding life be yours.

Sincerely,

Norma Koch

Many factors were involved in the creation of the 1979 Tradewinds. The people involved, the dedication displayed by each person, and the time and effort put into producing this annual were just some of them. I would personally like to thank these people who have contributed their all to make this yearbook possible.

Spots,

It was really great getting to know you this year but too bad you are leaving this year but we better see each other during the summer.

It was really fun having you in my Social St. Class and really fun going out to lunch with Tim & Kendra. It seems like everybody's going to a different school next year (at least all my friends are). Oh well! See you later.

Your friend Always
